Correspondence

The Clerk read a letter from the Deputy County Surveyor with reference to the Bus Shelters to be erected for the donation committee and also reported thereon.

It was resolved that the Parish Council will take over the bus shelter for the donation committee when such committee is dissolved.

The Clerk read a letter from the District Surveyor with regard to Church Road. stating that he did not know if funds would be available for making up the road. After discussion it was agreed that the Clerk should reply advising that Church Road be given priority and fees for its repair as soon as possible.

Mr Brown reported that the Rural District Council did not propose to use the land at the rear of Post Office for Building ^{or the rear of the} that if a private individual required it the Council would be prepared to sell the land

It was agreed that the Annual Parent Meeting be held at the Women Institute on Monday the 28th March 1955 at 8 pm
